

Explanation of Grades for Attitude to Learning.

All students are given a grading based on their attitude to learning over time. These gradings are:
Outstanding, Good, Requires Some Improvement and Cause for Concern.

The table below shows more detail on the types of behaviour typically shown by students with each of these grades.

OUTSTANDING	GOOD	REQUIRES SOME IMPROVEMENT	CAUSE FOR CONCERN
The behaviour of your child contributes positively to their own and others learning.	The behaviour of your child contributes positively to their own learning.	The inconsistent behaviour of your child limits their progress.	The inconsistent behaviour of your child limits their own and others progress.
Your child is highly motivated. They fully engage with tasks set.	Your child is motivated in lessons to complete tasks set.	Your child requires some teacher support to stay on task.	Demands a high level of teacher time to stay on task.
Work produced by your child is always completed with a high level of care and attention.	Work produced by your child is completed with due care and attention.	Work completed by your child is usually completed but may be lacking in care and attention.	Work is rarely completed and lacks care and attention.
All independent learning tasks undertaken by your child are completed to an outstanding level. Deadlines are always met.	All independent learning tasks undertaken by your child are completed to a good standard. Deadlines are met.	Any independent learning undertaken by your child is usually completed but deadlines are not always met.	Independent learning is rarely completed by your child and/or deadlines are missed.
Your child's learning is enhanced as a result of them being fully equipped and always punctual to lessons.	Your child's learning is well supported as a result of them being fully equipped and punctual to lessons.	Your child's learning is sometimes hindered due to their lack of equipment and/or regular lateness to lessons.	Your child's learning is impeded as a result of their lack of equipment and/or regular lateness to lessons.